FREMANTLE (PERTH), AUSTRALIA

A Coastal Gem with Culture and History

Coming in at number seven on Lonely Planet's list of best places to live, Fremantle has finally begun to shake off the shadow of neighbouring big brother Perth. With just 20 kilometres separating the two cities, Perth, with its happy hippie vibe has long been the big pull for visitors to the region. But Fremantle's colourful past and bright future gives Perth as good as it gets. The coastal city has undergone a complete revamp since the America's Cup thrust Fremantle into the spotlight in 1987. Over AUS$1.3 billion has been poured into revamping the city, and the fruits of the city's labour are ripe for picking. Investment in the arts has brought Fremantle to the fore of thriving urban culture, while generous grants for small businesses has led to groovy live-music rooms, hipster bars, boutique hotels, left-field bookshops, craft-beer breweries, Indian Ocean seafood shacks amid the buskers and beaches. If that doesn't not sound like your glass of beer, we guarantee a stroll along the wooden riverside walkway will change your mind. The city also enjoys another, rather different status. Fremantle was one of Australia's penal cities, vestiges of which can still be found in Fremantle Prison. Almost 10,000 convicts were condemned to life imprisonment here between 1850 and 1868, but the prison remained in use until 1991. Today, the memorable sandstone building is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and at just 15 minutes from port is well worth a visit. Just don't forget your get out of jail free card.

Fremantle Markets

Operating for over 120 years, these markets are a vibrant hub with more than 150 stalls selling fresh produce, handmade crafts, and local delicacies. Open Friday to Sunday, it's a great spot for food, shopping, and live entertainment.

SIGHTS

- Fremantle Prison (UNESCO World Heritage Site)
- Maritime Museum
- Fremantle Markets
- Fishing Boat Harbour
- Round House
- WA Shipwrecks Museum
- Bathers Beach
- Esplanade Park
- Cappuccino Strip

CUISINE AND SHOPPING

Fremantle is a foodie's paradise, offering fresh seafood, craft beer, and global flavors. The heart of dining is the lively Cappuccino Strip, where cafés and eateries line the street, creating a vibrant atmosphere perfect for enjoying local specialties and soaking up the city's coastal charm.

For unique souvenirs, Fremantle boasts artisan crafts, handmade goods, and boutique finds. The main shopping hub is along Market Street and surrounding lanes, where local designers and specialty stores offer everything from art pieces to stylish accessories, making it ideal for a relaxed shopping stroll.
